About Verbena Fuerte!

Step through the doorway and find yourself in a world bursting with vibrant colors, passion, and inspiration; discover Verbena Fuerte. A plant that reflected the power of its origins. With its flowers, shaped like hearts, burst with brilliant reds, dazzling pinks, and deep purple.

Verbena Fuerte is no ordinary plant; it's a survivor. While other plants wither and wilt in the scorching heat of summer, or droop under the water during rain season, Verbena Fuerte stands strong, its vibrant colors never fading. But there's more to Verbena Fuerte than just its resilience. The exceptional branching of Verbena Fuerte ensures that producing high-quality (young) plants, each bursting with robust vitality, is our standard.

And here's the best part: Verbena Fuerte comes in two series. The Upright series stands tall and proud, perfect for planting in pots or flower beds, while the Semi-Trailing series cascades gracefully from hanging baskets, adding a touch of elegance to any space.

The Verbena Fuerte brand is infused with South American flair. The bright colors of sun-drenched street art shines in every package, presentation and advertising campaign.
